About This Tour

To Vietnamese people, the dragon brings rain, essential for agriculture and what turns this country a vibrant, lush green. It also represents the emperor, and the prosperity and power of the nation. Like the Chinese dragon, the Vietnamese dragon is the symbol of yang, representing the universe, life, existence, and growth. The Vietnamese dragon is the combined image of crocodile, snake, cat, rat and bird. You can also imagine the shape of the country on a map as a verdantly green and sinuous dragon.

Many first-time visitors to Vietnam are overwhelmed by its ancient history, rich culture, and the sublime beauty of the country's natural setting. It boasts almost 2,000 miles of coastline with endless stretches of white sand beaches. Inland mountains soar majestically from dense, misty forests to heights of nearly 10,000 feet. Hidden away in impenetrable jungles lie the remains of ancient cities. The fertile Mekong Delta in the south is a patchwork of vast rubber plantations and brilliant green rice paddies tended by women in conical hats. Come with us for an adventure on this exciting "green dragon" starting in Hanoi and ending in Saigon, with an optional extension to see the wonders of Cambodia.

Hue Sightseeing

Hue was the ancient former capital of Vietnam during the Nguyen Dynasty at the beginning of the 17th century. With its splendid emperors' tombs and ancient pagodas, the Imperial Citadel Complex has been officially recognized by UNESCO as a World Heritage Site. We next see the Tu Duc Royal Tomb which was built on principles of "Fengshui" and designed to work in harmony with the natural scenery. Hue is the center of Buddhism in Vietnam with hundreds of temples and pagodas built in the early 19th century. We participate in a prayer ceremony to wish for health and prosperity for our families, bringing some offerings including some fruits & flowers to the monks. Afterward, enjoy a vegetarian lunch prepared by the nuns. Our final stop will be a visit with a famous expert working to preserve the unique and nearly forgotten Royal Enamel Art called "Phap Lam." This art form plays a huge part in Vietnamese history, particularly in Hue where enamelware was used for imperial structures and royal families during the Nguyen Dynasty. After returning to our hotel, the remainder of the evening is free. Overnight in Hue. (Breakfast / Lunch)

This morning, we transfer to the airport and take a flight to Ho Chi Minh City, formerly known as Saigon. Although a modern city, there are still remnants of its past visible in the historic landmarks and beautiful French colonial buildings. Get ready for a fascinating ride by vintage Vespa tonight to discover Saigon after dark. Relax! You're in the hands of an expert local Vespa driver. Just hang on!, On this dine-around tour we sample amazing street foods in the most authentic local restaurants. First we stop at a small Vietnamese bread stall, and then continue on to a local coffee shop, a boutique seafood restaurant, an old apartment complex with hundreds of food and drink stalls, a 50-year-old dessert shop, and finally a speak-easy bar to taste some local beer or cocktails and chat with locals. Temples of Angkor / Phare Circus

Built in 1186 as a Buddhist temple, Ta Prohm is one of Angkor's jewels and is overgrown with fig trees, giving a haunting yet exotic atmosphere. The centerpiece is the Bayon temple crowned with 216 giant, smiling faces of King Jayavarman VII. Also visit the Terrace of the Elephants and the Terrace of the Leper King, which houses almost perfectly preserved carvings. Return to your hotel to relax and have lunch (on your own). After a leisurely break we enter the rear gate of Angkor Wat (early 12th century). Surrounded by a vast moat it is thought to be the largest religious building in the world. The temple took 30 years and 300,000 workers to construct. You need to purchase your international flights to Hanoi, Vietnam (code HAN), and back from Saigon (code SGN). If you take the extension to Cambodia, you will return from Siem Reap (code REP). We encourage you to work with Steven Goldberg at Frosch Travel in Chicago, who can find you the best flights to get you to Hanoi, with return from Saigon.

When calling, please identify yourself as a Toto Tours participant. If you leave a message on Steven's voice mail, he will return your call promptly. He will be happy to discuss your travel plans and help you decide when to purchase your ticket for the best rate.

NOTE: The recent trend in travel is for people to finalize their plans much closer to departure time than was customary in the past. While we try to be as flexible as possible we often must turn away last minute registrants because we relinquish hotel space and air reservations 8 – 12 weeks prior to departure! Please keep this in mind when making your travel plans.

WHAT TO BRING

Ho Chi Minh City (Saigon) can range from 75 to 85 degrees. With such a wide variance in temperature, you will want to bring a sweater for cool evenings and lightweight clothes for hotter days. The tour is informal and dinner attire is casual, but you will want a nice outfit for welcome and farewell dinners. Try to pack light and bring only one piece of luggage plus your carry-on. Pack any medications you require in a carry-on bag and leave expensive jewelry at home.

MONEY MATTERS

Vietnam: The currency unit is the Dong (VND). Major credit cards are now more widely accepted throughout the country at most hotels and restaurants, but you will need cash at local shops. On March 23, 2019, the interbank exchange rate was 23,140 VND to the US Dollar.

Cambodia: The official currency is the riel (KHR), but the US Dollar is the currency favored by the locals. On March 23, 2019, the interbank exchange rate was 3,870 KHR to the US Dollar.

Current Exchange Rates: Click here to see up-to-date exchange rates for the currencies in all three countries. Tipping—Gratuities make a huge difference in the lives of those who work for us here, as the local wages are minimal at best. We will make group tips where appropriate, and guidelines will be provided prior to departure with a suggested contribution to a group tipping fund.
